CAREERFAIR

Novembre 3rd, 2026

Maison Internationale
Cité Universitaire de Paris

Take part in the world's largest forum dedicated to recruiting researchers!

For one day, meet the best PhDs seeking employment, boost your employer brand and boost your visibility.

Connect with qualified PhDs at this one-day event in central Paris.

For over ten years, more than 5,000 PhDs have been gathering to the PhDTalent Career Fair.

More than a recruitment fair, it's the annual event for innovation and research, where all sectors are represented.

It brings together over a dozen of the world's leading research institutions, 150 companies and start-ups, and 80 speakers and sponsors.

At the crossroads of the public and private sectors, both pragmatic and inspiring, the PhDTalent Career Fair takes place in the heart of Paris, with a rich program of conferences, workshops, individual interviews and a 6,000 m² exhibition space.
